HOME DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Shimla-2, the 5th October, 1985

No. Home.B(A)3-38/75-Jails.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 10 of the Himachal Pradesh Good Conduct Prisoners' (Temporary Release) Act, 1968, (Act 12 of 1969), the Governor, Himachal Pradesh, is pleased to make the following rules further to amend the Himachal Pradesh Good Conduct Prisoners' (Temporary Release) Rules, 1969 issued vide notification No. 1-9/69-Home (Jails), dated the 1st December, 1969 as amended from time to time, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Good Conduct Prisoners' (Temporary Release) (Fourth Amendment) Rules, 1985.

(2) These rules shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of Rule 3.—The existing sub-rules (2) and (3) of rule 3 of the Himachal Pradesh Good Conduct Prisoners' (Temporary Release) Rules, 1969, the following sub-rules (2) and (3) shall be substituted, namely:—

(2) The Superintendent of Jail shall forward the application of prisoner within 24 hours of its receipt along with his report to the District Magistrate of the District to which the convict belongs. The District Magistrate before making any recommendations shall, with the consultation of the Superintendent of Police verify the facts and grounds on which temporary release has been requested and shall also give their opinion whether the temporary release on parole/furlough is opposed on grounds of prisoner presence being dangerous to the security of State or prejudicial to the maintenance of Public Order. The District Magistrate shall complete the process of consultation with the Superintendent of Police and forward his recommendations within one week to the Inspector General of Prisons (Releasing Authority) together with report of Superintendent Jail, who shall decide the parole/furlough case ordinarily within a period of three days from the date of receipt of the recommendations of the District Magistrate.

In the event of the serious illness of close relation i.e. father, mother, brother, sister, spouse or child of the prisoner, the application should be processed more expeditiously. However in the event of death of the close relation i.e. father, mother, brother, sister, spouse or child of the prisoner the Superintendent of the Jail shall also be the Competent Authority to release a prisoner on parole for a period not exceeding fifteen days.

The Superintendent of Jail should release a prisoner on parole immediately on receipt of a death certificate, provided he satisfies himself independently within reasonable time about the genuineness of the certificate. For satisfying himself he will approach the concerned Police Station by wireless and verify about the truth of the death and the exact relation of the prisoner with the deceased in order to ascertain the nearness of the relationship.

The Superintendent Jail shall also take into consideration the prisoner's past criminal history and behaviour in the prison since admission as recorded in his case file and the likelihood of his not abusing the concession of parole, if granted.

The Superintendent of Jail shall without fail submit the case file of the prisoner to whom parole is thus granted, to the Inspector General of Prisons enabling him to ensure that the Superintendent has used proper discretion in effecting the release.

(3) The District Magistrate, while recommending the parole/furlough cases of prisoners will specify whether the prisoner shall be required to furnish the security bond or personal bond on both. He shall also indicate the amount of such bond(s) with due regard to the circumstances of cases. Such amount shall not in any event be excessive and shall not be mechanically fixed. While recommending release of the prisoner on his furnishing a personal bond, his family ties and relationships, his reputation, character and monetary conditions and his roots in the community shall be taken in to consideration.

If after making such enquiry as it may deem fit, the Releasing Authority is satisfied that the prisoner is entitled to be released under the Act, the Releasing Authority may issue to the Superintendent of Jail a duly signed and sealed warrant in Form 'B' ordering the temporary release of the prisoner, specifying therein, (1) the period of release of the prisoner, (2) the place or places, which the prisoner is allowed to visit during the period of such temporary release and the amount, as may be specified by the District Magistrate for which the security bond or personal bond shall be furnished by the prisoner in Form 'C' or 'D' respectively.

In case of second and subsequent release on parole/furlough the Releasing Authority shall be competent to order release of the prisoner on the recommendation of Superintendent of Jail concerned provided that the convict/prisoner maintained good behaviour during the previous release(s) and nothing adverse was reported against him.

By order,
Sd/-
Secretary.
